Discovering the Bible: A New Generation
Resource Book and Leader’s Guide by Boyd E. Lien

An introduction to the Bible, both Old and New Testaments, inviting adults to explore biblical people, events, ideas, and places through reading, reflection, discussion, creative expression, and discovery.

- An ideal resource for those new to the Scriptures or who want an overview of the entire Bible before taking on studies of individual books of the Bible.
- A great study to use for a 2-year program. The study is divided into 15 sessions for the Old Testament and 15 sessions for the New Testament.
- One approach used by some study groups is to begin with the New Testament, starting with material that may be more familiar, and then study the Old Testament—an approach that is similar to the way that many in the early church were introduced to the Gospel and to the entire story of God’s work and purpose for God’s world.

Excellent resource for use in a mid-week or Sunday morning program providing an overview of the entire Bible. The Leader Kit includes the Leader’s Guide PDF, a Slide Presentation, and short Video segments from the author to enhance each session.

Two Parts in One Book!

Part II—Do Not Be Afraid!
Part III—Your Light has Come
Resource Book and Leader’s Guide by Boyd Lien

ISAIAH—Do Not Be Afraid! focuses on chapters 40-55. Hear the word of the Lord to Jewish exiles in Babylon after the collapse of all that they had known. The prophet speaks of God’s grace offered in response to the people’s pain and lament. Once again Rev. Boyd Lien calls upon participants to focus on the image-rich language used in these chapters.

An excellent study for Lent and Eastertide. Many passages from Isaiah 40-55 are included in lectionary readings during these seasons of the church year.

ISAIAH—Your Light Has Come, concludes with chapters 56-66. Returning exiles and those who stayed behind struggle to reestablish a community. How will all God’s people come together to share in God’s future? Isaiah speaks of God reaching out to all nations and communicates God’s promises, capturing the attention and imagination of a struggling community—and eventually a New Testament community that records Jesus reading from Isaiah 61 to identify himself and his mission.

Once again, study participants focus on the image-rich language in these chapters of Isaiah, considered to be among the most beautiful passages in Scripture.

Galatians & James: Faith and Works
Resource Book and Leader’s Guide by Carol J. Miller

Two small—but mighty!—studies tackle one of the most contentious issues in theology: what are the roles of faith (grace) and works when it comes to salvation?

GALATIANS
Paul writes to Christians being pressured to maintain tokens of the church’s Jewish heritage, dietary laws, and rituals—proclaiming loud and clear that we are saved by grace alone and not by adherence to the Mosaic Law.

JAMES
While agreeing with Paul that salvation is found solely through Christ, James writes with absolute conviction that concern and care for one’s neighbor fulfills the law. Did Paul’s words about grace mean that disciples could neglect their obligation to aid their suffering brothers and sisters? How would a modern James indicate that “they will know we are Christians by our love”?
