LOTUSWEI

At LOTUSWEI, we're here to invite thousands — and eventually millions + billions — of people to take action, by working with flower elixirs. We want to make flower elixirs as widely understood + accepted as yoga, tai chi & meditation — with a flower elixir cabinet in every home and in every office.

Join us — and join a new kind of flower-power movement.

AURA MISTS

Mist before and/or after a treatment based on the flower your guest is most attracted to. Based on years of experience, when therapists also mist themselves before and after every appointment, they have more energy at the end of the day and take on less stress from clients, which makes for a happier work environment overall.
