

JULY 2014

HOME | the guide |

"She gets her good looks from me."

8 secrets from top dog groomers

If a bouffant is what you want, you might need to hit the salon. But the basics? You can do many of them at home. Just bone up on these expert tricks.

WRITTEN BY Stephanie Sisco

Dirty Dog DOORMAT

TOOLS OF THE TRADE

Four favorites to keep your pet (and your home) fresh and clean.

"If your dog scratches a lot, he may have sensitive skin. This natural oatmeal shampoo is mild and soothing." —May Pilan $12, warrenlondon.com.

"I use these Earthbound grooming wipes to clean my dog's paws before he jumps on my bed. They contain aloe and vitamin E, so they moisturize, too." —Leticia Woodside $15, petco.com for stores.

"The extra-long microfiber strands of the Dirty Dog Doormat soak up lots more mud and water than regular mats. That means a cleaner pet and quicker baths. Keep one in the entryway." —Carly Stine $30, dgsproduct.com for stores.