LIULI

ABOUT US

Founded in 1987 by Loretta H. Yang, Best Actress Award recipient at the Asia Pacific Film Festival, and Chang Yi who was dubbed Father of the Asia Studio Glass Movement by The New York Times, LIULI Crystal Art has grown from a modest workshop in Taiwan to Asia's leading crystal art brand.

We use the pâte de verre technique to handcraft artworks, and today, we have 41 galleries worldwide and more than 35 museums have collected LIULI artworks as part of permanent collections, including the Victoria & Albert Museum in London, Corning Museum of Glass in New York, The National Museum of Women in the Arts in D.C., Musée des Arts Décoratifs in Paris, National Palace Museum in the Forbidden City in Beijing.

ONE OF A KIND

Through a comprehensive handmade 12-step pâte de verre process, each piece is unique. Moreover, we dedicated a poem that shares the meaning and design concept behind each creation. Most of our art pieces are limited edition because we are committed to continuously create art for the good of the heart.

GARDEN & LANDSCAPE 1

Accenting the exterior of your home with natural elements, in addition to flora and fauna to privacy trees, stonework, and water features, add a piece of liuli crystal to elevate the look.

CRYSTAL TILE

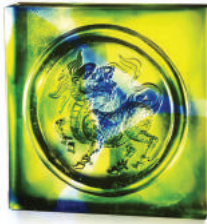

Each crystal piece is unique in color and it's color vein because of the fully handmade and kiln-firing process. The color forms organically when the kiln reaches 2000°F, and color vein designs give the liuli crystal a life like the gentle flow of water. Dancing with lights, these accent pieces are versatile in design for table, wall, door, bar station, or stool.
