

Post House Wines derives its name from the small Post Office which used to serve the local missionary community of Raithby and which is now the winery office and residence. It was consequently a logical step to associate the wine with its postal origin. The farm was bought by the Gebers family in 1981 in the picturesque area between the towns of Somerset West and Stellenbosch, and is situated at the foothills of the Helderberg Mountain. On a clear day Cape Point and False Bay is visible from the winery. This area is one of the pre-eminent wine regions in South Africa. The farm was systematically planted to vineyard with the grapes being sold to the local co-operative. It was only in 1996 that a couple of experimental barrels were made by Nick Gebers. Situated 7km from the False Bay coast a breach in the coastal ridge channels the south and south west winds towards the vineyards. These being generally cool breezes; they help moderate summer temperatures. The property covers a total of 70 hectares of which 40 hectares falls under vineyard. As of 2004 the vineyard comprises of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Shiraz, Petit Verdot, Pinotage, Malbec, Sauvignon Blanc and Chenin Blanc.

The Wine: Post House Missing Virgin 2017

The name Missing Virgin refers to a printing error on a Virgin Island stamp. The virgin figure was omitted from the stamp, hence the nick name, “Missing Virgin”. St. Ursula was a virgin martyr who lived between the third and fifth centuries A.D. She was born in Britain, avoided marriage to a pagan king and is believed to have been slain for her faith with 10,000 virgin companions in Cologne, Germany. Christopher Columbus named the Virgin Islands in her honor. A blend of Pinotage 67% and Petit Verdot 33%

WINEMAKING PRACTICES

Method: The grapes were fermented separately, using natural yeasts from the vineyard in open stainless steel tanks up to a maximum of 30°C. The skins were pushed down 4-8 times during peak fermentation. Malolactic fermentation took place in the barrel where the wine had minimal handling. Use was made of traditional gravity flow and no mechanical pumps were used in the wine making process. The wines were racked 3 times over a 22-month period. There was no filtration and the sulphur levels were kept to a minimum.

Wood ageing: 100% barrel aged in French and European oak barrels.
20% new French and European oak barrels.
24 months in 225 liter barrels.

TASTING NOTES

A red blend of Pinotage and Petit Verdot grapes resulting in a wine with an intensely dark blueish color. A full bodied, rich wine with supple soft tannins but with a lively long finish. The nose has a hint of cinnamon, blueberries, fruit cake and wild heath. 900 cases (x6btl) produced. Wine of Origin Stellenbosch.
