Montebello

Organic Italian Pasta Sauces

19.75 oz. | 6/case | $4.00 each

Originally built in 1388, the idyllic Monastery of Montebello has long served as an emblem of agriculture in northern Italy. This is a region prized for its produce, a place where tomatoes go from the vine to the jar within hours of ripening. Lightly cooked with extra virgin olive oil and classic seasonings, these tomatoes bring delicious flavor to our organic, Biodynamic® sauces.

For organic pasta perfection, we go straight to the source: the skilled artisans of northern Italy. Using old-world techniques, they transform freshly milled durum wheat into delicate doughs. Cut with bronze or traditional dies and then left to gradually dry, the finished pasta has a wonderfully porous texture that's designed to better soak up sauce.

Our packaging is now 0% plastic!
Can be recycled with paper.
