

DIRTY COW®

PLANT BASED CHOCOLATE

A plant based indulgence for the post milk generation.

Deliciously messy ingredients are dunked, pressed and sometimes tossed liberally onto creamy chocolate, making each one completely unique.

This provocatively named brand raises the occasional eyebrow but its unapologetically bold style represents the fun, mess and exuberance of the Dirty Cow range while standing out as a brand that doesn't compromise on its vegan values.

FEEL GOOD BEING BAD...

These distinctive bars are all dairy free, vegan, made using cocoa sourced from certified sustainable farming, and all wrapped up in 100% plastic free packaging.
