

The story begins in 1886 when Walter Whittard started selling the finest tea, coffee and hot chocolate in London with the approach to "buy the best". When Walter Whittard first set up his store, he had no idea what the next century or so would bring. It's a story of tradition, war and disaster, survival, success, innovation and creativity...

Over 135 years later, the never- ending curiosity to find unique blends and distinctive tastes lives on at Whittard. They still scour the world for the best single origin varieties, from the very best tea to limited edition coffees.
