

NELLEULLA

In an ancient language Nelleulla means - a golden light. Liene and Laura's chocolates capture the spirit of their native Latvia. They are surrounded by the largest and wildest, most northern European forests. Nelleulla's design and creative theme is inspired by the Nordic winters and the magical Northern Lights.

If there ever was a question regarding the Belgium's aptitude to create great chocolate, the question is now answered. Delafaille chocolatiers have built up an exceptional reputation based on experience over more than 20 years. Their truffles are impeccable: the bite is rich in cacao, the texture dense and buttery, the flavor of deep chocolate throughout; a very satisfying experience. This is chocolate truffles at its best and the wrapped presentation in gold and red is classy.

TULLE MUSLIN CANDYING

Just like jewels preserved in their box, raw chestnuts are manually wrapped in pairs in a tulle muslin before cooking and candying. The subtle flavour of the fruit can be fully expressed and Madagascar Bourbon Vanilla gently enhances its flavor.

In 1969, François and Maggy Doucet created the François Doucet Confiseur confectionery when they took over an old almond breaker in Oraison. Terroir, traceability, quality of raw materials: so many essential criteria for the Doucet family to create quality confectionery. Thus, 75% of the fruits used in the fruit jellies come from Provence, the cocoa and chocolate come from fair and sustainable productions participating in the Cocoa Horizons program.

The intense wave of mint that hits you when you open a box of Summerdown transports you straight to the fields in Hampshire farm, a peppermint playground for peacocks, bees and butterflies. Black Mitcham is an extraordinary peppermint prized for its pure, bright character. It's a taste that had been all but lost to England, until we began cultivating it ourselves three decades ago.

We are at the very beginning of the Renaissance... native of Nantes, Anne de Bretagne has just married the King of France Louis XXII. Passionate about art, she received the house of Medici in Florence. To honor her guests, she asks her cook to invent new culinary pleasures. Having worked in Italy, he lovingly combines chocolate and butter, orange zest and almonds to create subtle chocolate palets. This is how the Florentines were born.

Our story began in 1886 when Walter Whittard began selling the finest tea, coffee, and hot chocolate in London with the approach to buy the best. Over 135 years later, our never-ending curiosity to find unique blends and distinctive tastes lives on at Whittard. We continue to flourish, and our ambition will always remain the same – to ensure every customer can enjoy their own Whittard moment, and make each day more special.

Buckingham Cakes are based in the heart of England in the small historic town of Bradford on Avon, surrounded by rolling hills and green fields. Those who think fruitcake is dry, hard and tasteless have never tried the traditional recipe from Bradford-on-Avon, a town in west Wiltshire, near the border with Somerset, population 9,402.

In the 1800's eating fruit cake was banned for a while because it was considered 'sinful' being too rich and delicious.

In the same family since 1796, Mulot & Petitjean has kept up the tradition of pain d'épices bakers of Dijon from more than 220 years. The company produces the authentic Dijon's gingerbread staying faithful to the traditional recipes, and respecting the know-how of the people.

DIJON NONNETES - In the Middle Ages, nuns used to make these little cakes in their convents. A soft jam center - imagine, first the crispness of the icing, then the softness of the gingerbread, and finally the gooey center filled with delicious jam, caramel or chocolate.

DEAN'S®

ORIGINAL FAMILY RECIPES

In 1975 at the heart of Helen Dean's kitchen, in the small town of Huntly, North East Scotland. It was here that Helen first created her delicious traditional shortbread, and her friends and family loved the 'melt in the mouth' sensation. Her husband Bill, a Drum Major, decided to use Helen's baking to help raise funds for the local Huntly pipe band. Their touring helped spread her shortbread's fame. The aroma of home baking would fill the town as Helen established her own small bakery to meet demand.

Hand crafted, organic, Award winning

The name is inspired by the received wisdom wrapped up in the quotation: 'What's the best thing in life you can give your children: roots for confidence and stability to grow and wings for aspiration'. Jams are made by hand in open copper pans deep in the heart of Somerset. The gentle batch production ensures the integrity of the fruit is maintained, guaranteeing a great texture every time.
