Inside you'll find we have a really cool Civil War token deal, a certified Franklin half dollar deal, and you'll find we are going to bend over backward to win your U.S. gold business. While space limits kept us from including them, gold and silver bars are still available in time for Christmas – just call for pricing!

THE PATRIOTIC & STORE CARD CIVIL WAR TOKEN SUPER SPECIAL

strictly original very fine or better condition

Rarely is any dealer able to offer such an exciting deal to a wide audience...

Civil war tokens were struck in varying quantities during the Civil War to substitute for Federally issued 1¢ coins which had all but disappeared from circulation by the summer of 1863. Two encompassing types were minted: Patriotic tokens – were privately produced at a profit and put into circulation; while Store Card tokens – were purchased from private issuers, in bulk, by tradesmen and were usually redeemable for a cash value in product or service.
