Agency Referral Information

Thank you for referring a candidate to the BraveWorks' Artisan Program! We accept clients (Artisans) who are inspired to transform their lives and envision a different future. Our mission is to empower women and families overcoming trauma and injustice, bridging the gap from pain to purpose through inspired creations, connections and economic confidence.

During their time with us, Artisans will have the opportunity to learn work readiness skills through the production of jewelry and other activities, as well as receive personal development through goal setting, small group mentoring, one-on-one coaching and access to resources. In order to participate, applicants must be willing to set and work towards goals that we can help them achieve. By participating in this program, Artisans should see the significance of working towards these goals. On average, Artisans participate in our program for three to six months, or until primary goals are met. If following this time, Artisans have not made progress towards these goals, we will assess if BraveWorks is an appropriate fit.

The Dilworth Project meets each Wednesday from 10 AM-2 PM at BraveWorks' offices at 1717 Cleveland Avenue, Charlotte, NC 28203. Artisans will be paid a weekly $30 stipend for their time.
