32-0423402Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Fashion & Compassion creates empowerment communities where vulnerable women connect with Gos, one another and resources as their lives are transformed.

We accomplish our mission by providing part-time, transitional employment to women overcoming addiction, incarceration, domestic abuse, trafficking, racism, generational poverty and other life challenges. The women we serve are referred by non-profit community partners and other organizations serving women in need. We introduce them to a diverse community where they learn work-readiness skills, receive emotional support and opportunities for spiritual growth. The women served, called Artisans, develop an Artisan Empowerment Plan (AEP) that documents their physical, emotional and spiritual growth plans for the future. The AEP breaks their goal down into achievable milestones. We connect the Artisans to employment opportunities and other resources in the local community as needed to accomplish the goals and reach the milestones they set in the Artisan Empowerment Plan.
