ABOUT US

Greek-American designer Cindy Giannaris grew up in the Berkshires of Western Massachusetts surrounded by an impressive collection of world class art, culture, and outdoor adventures that nurtured her creativity.

Her Mediterranean roots and travels have served as a constant source of inspiration. Spending her summers with family on the magical Greek Islands, by day she collected stones and shells from each of the magnificent beaches she visited. At night she strolled the small, winding foot paths in the main towns buzzing with tourists filled with small specialty boutiques, mesmerized by the unbeatable array of stunning jewelry.

And so her love affair with jewels began and Gemme Amour was born.
