

Ellie Dickins Shoes

Autumn - Winter 2019

making feet happy

Hello and Welcome to our Autumn/Winter Catalogue

Less is so much more

While I don't like to wish the year away, with the shorter days comes the arrival of our new collection of super comfy shoes, boots, snuggly slippers and more. I hope you love the new styles as much as I do.

FREE DELIVERY

Some of our loyal customers have commented that while they love our free returns policy, as they keep most of what they order, they feel they're missing out and would prefer to have free delivery.

Good point we thought - that feels fairer.

From this season, standard UK delivery will be free for all footwear orders and accessory orders over £50. You'll only need to pay postage for returns. Please see p20 for details.

Downsizing our packaging

While I know it's lovely to receive a big box in the post, I'malso aware it's not very environmentally friendly. The bigger the box, the more space it takes up and the fewer that can be transported in one vehicle. It was starting to feel a bit wasteful.

Reducing our carbon footprint

We'll now be posting footwear without their boxes. Instead they'll be carefully wrapped in tissue paper and a protective outer layer to reach you in perfect condition, and with a much smaller carbon footprint.

Still celebrating 20 years with a gift for you

As a thank you for your continued support, we'll be popping a pen in with all footwear orders.

Remember to check your next delivery for your free gift.

Putting up a fight

On a slightly more serious note, if you've noticed that I've not been in the shop as much as normal, that's because I've recently been diagnosed with breast cancer. I'm in excellent hands and receiving treatment, and fully intend to beat this. But it has meant I've not been around as much as I'd like.

My fabulous team are doing a sterling job, and together it's business as usual. But please do bear with us if there is a slight delay in getting an order out to you, we're doing our best.

As for me, as my good friend Jo put it,

Cancer chose the wrong person to pick a fight with!

Ellie xx

How to Order

When ordering by telephone or email, please have to hand the catalogue reference number as well as the size and colour.

FREE standard UK delivery

for footwear, and accessory orders over £50

Next Day Delivery is £12 for the first pair of shoes or short boots, with extra pairs costing £5 an item, and £15 for each pair of long boots.

For orders outside the UK, please call +44 1488 686 480.

We send out all orders as quickly as possible, whenever possible on the same day of ordering.

Returns

Exchanges or unwanted items should be returned unworn and in their original condition within 5 working days of receipt for a full refund.

Please try footwear on a carpeted surface to prevent scuffing or marking.

When wrapping footwear for return, please place the soles facing outwards to protect the uppers from marking or damage.

There should be an address label included in your package, but if it's missing, we're sorry and our address is:

97 High Street, Hungerford, Berks, RG17 0NB.

We recommend using an insured, recorded delivery service to ensure the safety of your package. We cannot be held responsible for anything lost or damaged in transit.

Footwear

Uppers and linings are leather unless otherwise stated. Colours are as true to life as possible, but there may be some slight variation due to printing. All stock is subject to availability.

If you have any questions, please call us before placing your order. We're friendly and very happy to help.
