

Breakthrough Ideas Need Breakthrough Technology

You aspire to innovate, but it's not your ideas holding you back - it's your office tools and spaces. Huddle rooms, boardroom systems, and working remotely all sound good, but your reality is filled with frustration.

Too much gets in the way. Pictures of whiteboards buried in email. Expensive, complicated technology nobody uses. Worse yet, your team's collective ideas, plans or strategies get lost or leaked.

There is a Better Way

Boundless Creativity with Quilla™
A portable, digital writing solution for real-time ideation.

A superior experience for collaboration and brainstorming

Pick up a pen and go

Writing that feels familiar like paper and pen and allows creative thoughts to flow. The power of digital allows your touch to interact with your content - erase, resize, copy, move. Always on, ready to use, and saves your content as you go. It's not complicated - there's no setup.

Move it with you

It follows the conversation. It's no longer anchored to a wall or chained to a wire. The thin and light device weighs only 24 lbs. Lift it off the wall, and put it on a stand. The battery allows you to go wireless to meet wherever you need to be. 16 hours of continuous battery life. Nothing compares.

Expand your space

Quilla helps you go beyond the boundaries that hold us back. Instantly cascade or span your content to multiple connected devices to support how you need to work. Zoom and move to go beyond page edges or turn the page to continue building on your ideas. Unlimited digital pages for unlimited creativity. Free your thoughts.
