Boundless Learning and Ideation with Quilla™

Move beyond the lecture. It’s not your ideas holding you back - it’s your tools and spaces. Easily break free from fixed-place systems. Innovation is no longer anchored to a wall or chained to a wire.

Reimagine collaboration. Transition easily between a professor’s presentation and facilitated group work. Create, develop, and share break through ideas anywhere.

Enable Active Learning with Quilla™
A portable, digital writing solution for real-time ideation.

A superior experience for collaboration and planning

Walk up and use
It’s not complicated - there’s no setup. Writing that feels like paper and pen and allows creative thoughts to flow. Intuitive touch features allow you to interact with your content - erase, resize, copy, move. Always on, ready to use, and automatically saves as you go.

Your content will follow
Access your content on any device, anywhere. Walk down the hallway and bring up your content to review and share, or brainstorm in the library, conference room, or even outside. No space? No worries! Quilla is highly mobile! Weighing only 24 lbs, simply lift it off the wall, put it on a stand and the 16 hour battery allows you to go wireless wherever you need to be.

Connect your network across campus and beyond
It’s true, working with others helps our ideas get stronger. With Quilla it’s easy to share your workbook content across campus or across the globe. Sync your device with others to see contributions in real-time regardless of geographical locations

A powerful ecosystem that is secure, seamless, and scalable

Unlimited creativity
Make thinking explicit with Quilla. Go beyond the boundaries of surface and file size. Unlimited workbooks and pages expand with your ideas. Instantly cascade or span your content to multiple connected devices allows you to transform content as you wish. Zoom and move to go beyond page edges, tear-off sections, or turn the page to continue developing your ideas.

Learner-centric design
A perfect addition to an Active Learning Classroom. Our technology fades into the background so students and faculty can focus on collaboration and learning, not technical distractions.

Robust content management
Individual accounts allow students and faculty to securely build and share a library of content. From an iOS or Android device, or directly on Quilla, users can browse, rename, move, and delete folders and workbooks as well as assign access permissions when sharing workbooks.
