HERE'S THE SCOOP

Cool down with an icy treat at the Great Ocean Road Chocolaterie's Ice Cream Festival. With 144 different flavours including cranberry and pistachio nougat ice cream, pinot gris and peach sorbet, and goats cheese and beet ice cream - there's something for everyone. Twelve new flavours will be introduced each day of the festival until February 23. You can even try ice cream on pizza.

#GETINMYBELLY

Warrally Cockatoo has us drooling over this tasty pizza that features prosciutto, fig, ricotta, walnut and rosemary. Find them in the Warrally Village shopping centre in Armstrong Creek.

A TOUR FOR THE TASTEBUDS

Indulge in a bottomless lunch at Movida Lorne without worrying about the drive home, thanks to Lorne Tours. Organise a ride from Geelong or Torquay for 4-7 people to enjoy a three-course meal and free flowing wines at Movida Lorne. Guests also have the opportunity to shop at boutique Wolf Whistle, with discounts for Lorne Tour customers, all for $179 per person.

WINE OF THE WEEK

WITH RICHARD CROWLEY
OF BARWON HEADS WINESTORE

Juicy and unctuous, this moreish lighter-style red is made using fruit from the oldest Gamay vines in Geelong. This is a Gamay that is fresh, vibrant and lip-smackingly drinkable; fruity rather than tannic. A versatile match for almost any dish, although it's always a winner when served with good cheese, great music and a lazy Sunday. Empire of Dirt Wines 2018 Ink Gamay, $38 from Barwon Heads Winestore.

A MOMENT WITH ...

VALERI TKATCHENKO,
CO-OWNER OF THE KIOSK, 3/61 GEEELONG ROAD, TORQUAY

Describe The Kiosk in three words:

Local coffee hub.

What do you love most about your job?

Our regulars. It sounds cliché but we honestly feel lucky to see them every day for a good chat and a laugh. They are the friendliest bunch of people we have the pleasure of caffeinating each day and make every day at work enjoyable.

What is the most common order?

Coffee.

What is your favourite order to make?

Coffee and a sneaky jaffle.

Tell us something we would be surprised to learn about your venue:

Some people actually think my jokes are funny.

Describe the ultimate experience at your venue:

As Dave one of our regulars would put it, there is nothing better than catching the early morning sun rays, sipping on a Mikro latte and reading the paper.

What are your plans for the rest of summer at the venue?

Keep Torquay caffeinated and work on my lame dad jokes.

What is always in your fridge at home?

Garlic - it's the start of any good dish
