INT. SUSHI RESTAURANT

RACHEL (20s) and ARI (20s) share drinks in a low-lit bar.

                    ARI
          You're serious.

                    RACHEL
          I guess I am.

                    ARI
          You've never tried making maple walnut crackerjack casserole.

                    RACHEL
          I've never heard of it until now.

                    ARI
          That's fine. Just follow my board.

Rachel nods, drinks her beer, doesn't answer -- purposefully.

                    ARI (CONT'D)
          Oh my God. You're not on Pinterest?
          How is that possible?

                    RACHEL (trailing)
          It just seems a little much and I'm not looking for anything else to --

                    ARI
          Pinterest is a big deal. It's a cultural movement. There's a lot of useful stuff on there.

                    RACHEL
          I find that a little hard to believe. I'm just trying not to get involved in another wasteful time-suck.

                    ARI
          It's not all wasteful. Look, it's Jennifer Lawrence eating a burrito.

Rachel takes Ari's phone.

                    RACHEL
          That's amazing.

                    ARI
          Go ahead. Pin it.

                         RACHEL Pin it?

                         ARI
              Pin it!

Rachel pins it. She laughs.

                         RACHEL
              Oop! That was fun!

                         ARI
              Right! Pin it!

Rachel gazes at the phone. She is found.

EXT. JOGGING ROUTE

Rachel jogs, her cell phone still in her hand.

                         RACHEL
              Make your own lip balm and keep it in an Altoid container? Pin it!

INT. CONFERENCE ROOM

A presentation is going on for work. Rachel turns her chair from her CO-WORKERS, glued to new developments on her phone.
She puts lip balm on her lips from an Altoid tin.

                         RACHEL
              How to turn your bed into an aquarium? Pin it!

INT. RACHEL'S BEDROOM

Rachel bolts up in the middle of sleep. Fish hang from above.
Her phone is still in her hand.

                         RACHEL
              How to make a family out of cat hair? Pin it!

INT. DINNER TABLE

A tiny FAMILY MADE OUT OF CAT HAIR. Rachel swipes the table, knocking them all out of the way.

                    RACHEL Gluten-free silverware? GLUTEN-FREE   *
          SILVERWARE? Pin it!   *

INT. BREAK ROOM / WORK   *

Rachel talks to TWO CO-WORKERS at lunch. They are nervous. *
She holds a fat little candle with a blanket around it.   *

                    RACHEL   *
          And you just tie a little knot and   * you've got a blanket for your   * candle!   *

                              CUT TO: *

Rachel frantically dips a tea bag into her cup of tea * repeatedly. She also wears tea bags as earrings.   *

                    RACHEL (CONT'D)   *
          You take two tea bags, you put them   * in your shoes, and it absorbs the   * odor! It absorbs the odor!   *

                              CUT TO: *

It's Thanksgiving! Rachel and her Two Co-Workers wear festive * sweaters, and Rachel has a gift for them. They are exhausted. *

                    RACHEL (CONT'D)   *
          It's a quiche. In the shape. Of a   * pizza. IT'S A QUICHZZA!   *

Co-Worker #1 screams!   *

                              CUT TO: *

GO-PRO FOOTAGE REQUIEM-STYLE OF RACHEL GOING THROUGH * DIFFERENT LOCATIONS, CRACKED OUT AND PINNING.   *

INT. DEN / RACHEL'S APARTMENT

All of Rachel's Friends have cornered her. They all approach her with friendship but she won't have it.

                    RACHEL
          This is some bullshit. This is some bullshit right here!
                    (MORE)

                     RACHEL (CONT'D)
          Does anybody have a problem when you need a sweater for your bike?
          No! Does anybody have a problem when you need a chair made out of wine corks? I am that chair! I am that bike sweater! You got a problem with me? Then you can PIN IT!

                     ARI
          We're just concerned about you.
          You've turned every button you own into a bow tie.

                     RACHEL
          You don't know that!

INT. RACHEL'S CAR

SCREECH! BANG! Rachel hits a person! She doesn't notice.
She's too glued to Pinterest.

                     RACHEL
          Oh my God. Joy Cho is so AMAZING!   *

EXT. RACHEL'S HOUSE

Rachel stands cornered. Can't get to the door. Holding a ton of BABY PUMPKINS and MASON JARS. TWO COPS point guns at her.

                     COP #1
          MA'AM! PUT THE PHONE DOWN AND STOP PINNING!

                     RACHEL NO!

                     COP #1   *
          YOU HAVE FAR TOO MANY MASON JARS   *
          AND BABY PUMPKINS, MA'AM!   *

                     COP #2   *
          PUT THE MASON JARS AND BABY   *
          PUMPKINS DOWN, MA'AM!

Rachel makes a break for the door.

                     COP #1   *
          I've got the shot!

                     COP #2   *
          Take it!

BAM! BAM! BAM! MASON JARS and BABY PUMPKINS fall on the ground. The two Cops walks and look down at Rachel.   *

                          COP #1   *
             It just won't stop, will it?

                          COP #2
             No. It just won't stop until you're fucking dead.

Blood pools around Rachel's face. In the blood we read Pin It.
