A Taste of the Sweet Stuff

Chequessett Chocolate is truly a labor of love for husband-and-wife team, and self-taught chocolatiers, Josiah Mayo and Katherine Reed. If you've visited their café in Truro, you know exactly what we're talking about. They create hand-crafted, bean-to-bar chocolate (only the third such practice in Massachusetts), which means they mold chocolate bars from raw cacao beans. Chequessett's chocolate bars are minimally processed, 70 percent cacao sweetened with organic evaporated cane juice. Chequessett Chocolate and Cafe, named for the Wellfleet neighborhood where Mayo and Reed conceived their business, is located at 8 Highland Rd., North Truro, 774-538-6249.
