All items are handmade in Mexico & Morocco; these tiles must be treated/considered in a similar manner to a natural product. Each tile is different from the next, as they are made by hand, specific for your project.

Please note the following features of Zellige mosaics are not defects, they are what constitute an authentic Zellige tile:

- Chips off the surface of the glaze exposing the clay beneath or Imperfections on the tile face
- Dips in the surface of the tile
- Uneven edging of the tile

- The epoxy resin at the back coming through to the front of the mosaic
- For assembled sheets – uneven gaps between mosaics pieces.
- Variation in colour between tile pieces
- The exposure of the clay beneath the tile
