

Level 4, Unit 2 Writing Prompts

The Beth and Thad Adventures

The writing prompts are designed as follows: The first prompt for each chapter relates to the story line. The second prompt is meant to evoke a more personal connection.

Have fun writing!

The Hot Dog Champs, page 20

1. Pretend you are the news reporter. Write a few sentences of what you would say to break the news of Beth and Thad's bravery at the hot dog stand.
2. The next day, Beth and Thad get a call from their new police friends to help with a special case involving a missing cat. Write a story about how they help find the cat. Remember, cats are good at hiding!

The Gumdrop Quest, page 39

1. Imagine you are a student in Ms. Whit's class. Write or draw what you'd create during Dav Pilkey's visit. What story would you write or sketch with him?
2. Write about the conversation that the kids are having with Dav Pilkey. Think of three questions they might ask him. Then imagine how he might answer the questions. Create a dialogue. Use quotation marks and the word "said."
