

Winyl RSD rules. Saturday 18th April

RSD is “first come first served”. You’ll be given a ticket number to show your place in the queue. Keep this safe.

Please note your wish list overleaf We’ll take your list and fulfil the list with anything we have in stock (we won’t take lists from mobile phones but other paper lists are fine)

Only 1 copy per person on the day. Sadly, the culture of multi-buys ending up on eBay and not in the hands of true fans has forced this. (If we run out of your desired item, don’t despair, we have a list of RSD stores nearby who might have copies, and some items won’t have been fully allocated, so we might get copies after RSD.) Come and see us Sunday 11am-4pm for “RSD Hangover”

10 people only in the store, then 1 out 1 in. This is to avoid crushing and allow you space to browse. We have lots of other stock and special offers in addition to the exclusive official RSD ones.

Your RSD stock will be at the till when you are ready to pay

Things to note:

*FREE hot drink and roll from Scoffers from 6am (ish) - 8am for anyone in the queue (one per person)

*Wine tasting is suspended for RSD, however you can still buy wine, beer or juice from 10am

*FREE live music from 12pm (dependent on bands turning up).

Merch will be available to buy directly from them and if you want to make a donation for their performance I’m sure they’ll appreciate it.
