All statements refer to authentic merchandise I own and leave at my own risk with Everything Cutie, Inc. (hereafter referred to as ECi Stores). I will not hold ECi Stores responsible for loss, theft or damage.

All merchandise must be in like new condition for the current season/style, free of any defects and meeting all current safety regulations. All merchandise must be complete, in sellable condition / working order, including any batteries or light bulbs if needed.

All prices and discounts are based on current market trends as determined by ECi Stores

Unsold items that ECi Stores originally priced $25 or more may be picked up between the 90th thru 100th days, starting from the date the items are priced. All items not picked up by the 100th day, or of a lesser dollar amount, or in unsellable condition will be donated.

For consignors who choose to receive their payments as cash, payments are available during normal business hours by presenting a picture ID for any amount due below $100. Checks are printed on the first of each month for consignors owed $100 or more and are available for pickup in store after the 1st. Consignors may choose to receive their monies owed as store credit, and will receive an additional 5% of the selling price. You may convert your account from receiving store credit to cash at any time for a one time charge of 25% of the current account balance.

I will receive the following payments (excluding taxes and buyers fees):

Cash Consignors:
