He is almost three feet tall and his eyes are painted blue. He has long, elegant whiskers, and he wears lots of handmade clothes, shoes, and hats. He always has a pocket watch with him. He has a fluffy real rabbit's tail. Abilene loves Edward so much and takes very good care of him, but he doesn't really care for her or love her in return. The first drama was when Rosie, the neighbor's dog came into the house uninvited, picked up Edward in her mouth, and shook him back and forth. The second drama was when the maid cleaned and vacuumed Edward. She did this so vigorously that his pocket watch was sucked straight into her vacuum. Pellegrina is Abilene's grandmother. She is very old, with a large sharp nose and bright black eyes. She is the one who had Edward created and gave him as a gift to Abilene. Edward thinks she is different from the other adults because she is the only one who doesn't speak to him in a condescending manner. She speaks to him as if to an equal. Beyond: Answers will vary.
