Character Analysis: Claudia wants to run away from home. She seems to be resentful towards her parents, and dislikes her position with her family. She has three siblings, and is nearly twelve years old Claudia is organized and enjoys planning.

Comprehension and Analysis:

- 1. Claudia wants to run away because she is unhappy at home. She feels that her position in her family makes for a lot of unfair responsibility. She thinks her brothers get away with everything, and that she has to do everything. She is also bored with the monotony of her life. On page 2, the text reads, "She was the oldest child and the only girl and was subject to a lot of injustice." Claudia wants to run away to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City, and she plans to bring her nine year old brother. Jamie, with her
- 2. In my opinion, Claudia does not have good reasons for running away. I think that she sounds ungrateful about her comfortable and safe life, and that she should talk to her parents about her feelings rather than taking the dangerous step of running away. (Answers will vary.)
- 3. I am similar to Claudia in that I am very organized and I like planning, just like she sloes. I am also a gir like she is. I am different from Claudia because I am the middle child, not the oldest shild. I am also different from her because I have never considered running away before.

Beyond: First, they will pack items into their instrument cases. Then, they will stay on the bus after it gets to school, hoping to go unnoticed. Then they will board a train to New York City. (Answers to the second question will vary.)
