Character Analysis: Pippi lost her mother when she was only a baby. Her father was once a sea captain, but he was blown overboard in a storm. Pippi now lives by herself in Villa Villekulla with only her pet monkey and horse.

Comprehension and Analysis:

1. Pippi is a very rambunctious, spirited, and adventurous child. She doesn't live with her mother or father or any other adult. In fact, she does mostly whatever she wants and doesn't even go to school. She lives by herself because her mother died when she was only a baby, and her father was lost at sea.
2. Tommy and Annika love being neighbors with Pippi, because she is fun and makes things so exciting. They're fascinated by her and accept her just as she is. On page 24, the text reads, "Wake up, Tommy," [Annika] cried, pulling him by the arm. "Wake up and let's go and see that funny girl with the big shoes."
3. Willie is being taunted by a group of 5 boys, who are chasing him around and hitting him. Pippi goes right up to the group of mean boys and calmly tells them they shouldn't mess with Willie. The boys begin to taunt her instead, but then, Pippi shows off her strength by lifting the boys and throwing them around.
