Setting Analysis: Laura and her family lived sixty years before the book was written, in Wisconsin, in big woods, inside of a little gray house. They are in a very secluded location and are surrounded by a lot of nature but no other homes.

Comprehension and Analysis:

- Pa must hunt for deer. Then, they use each part of the deer for something different, like making meat and leather. Also, they must slaughter the hog. Third, they must catch lots of fish and salt and store them.
- After Pa hears the hog squealing, he goes and sees a big black bear trying to grab the hog. Pa fires but he misses the bear. He feels sorry that he did not get the bear, but he is glad that he saved the hog.
- I would not enjoy such a harsh winter, because I like sunny days, but cold days. I would enjoy prepping all of the food and materials for winter, because that sounds like it would be educational and fun. (Answers will vary.)

Beyond: (Answers will vary.)

Examples: Do you ever wish for a different life? Do you and Mary get along? Do you think you will grow up to be like your mom?
