Character Analysis: She feels insecure about her looks and she feels that she doesn't quite fit in. She has a deep bond with her baby brother, Charles Wallace. She misses her father who has been gone for some time.

- Charles Wallace is odd, because he acts and speaks in a way that is much older than his actual age. He also seems to always know what his mom and sister are thinking, in a supernatural way. Also, he Charles Wallace doesn't really speak when others are around, and he actually didn't speak at all until he was four years old.
- I learned that Meg's father has been missing for some time, and that others gossip that he has left his family.
- Mrs Whatsit is very unusual looking. She is very old and has gray hair in a bun atop her head. She is wearing many colorful scarves. She has previously met Charles Wallace, and she stole someone's sheets. Right before she leaves, she tells Mrs. Murry that there is such thing as a tesseract. Mrs. Murry reacts with shock and confusion.

Beyond:

Examples of quotes from the text include:

- "I'll bet she is the tramp. I'll bet she did steal those sheets." (page 23)
- "I don't trust her one bit." (page 24)
