ABOUT THE STUDENT CHAPTER PACKET
The student work for every 3-5 chapters contains both comprehension and vocabulary. Each part includes the following sections:

1. Quickwrite-A great idea is to have the students free-write here BEFORE reading the chapters. This gets their minds warmed up and thinking in the direction that the chapters will take them. This also helps them to connect the concepts in the story to themselves.
2. Vocabulary-The students practice with four new words that are chosen for you from every set of chapters. Synonyms, antonyms, and context clues are among the skills included.
3. True/False, Multiple Choice, or Sequencing-Two sets of these types of questions are included for each section.
4. Standards Focus-One question or activity is included. These focus on Reading Literature standards like main idea, character analysis, and figurative language.
5. Comprehension and Analysis-Three short answer questions are provided per section. You will find that these questions are at all levels of Bloom's Taxonomy, so are optimal for differentiation if needed. [...] them all or choose just some for your students to complete.

Character Analysis: They are wealthy. They are landowners in Mexico, and have several servants. Esperanza is the only child and they love each other very much.

Comprehension and Analysis:
1. Her favorite time of the year is after the harvest, when it is her birthday. For her birthday, she always has a fiesta to celebrate. All of her friends and family come.
2. They are in a higher social status and are a wealthier family. I think this is significant to the story, because as the author mentions, other people who are not as wealthy may harbor some bitterness against families like theirs. Also, it shows that Esperanza has never really hard to deal with much hardship, but after her father's death, she might have to. Finally, this is significant to the story because this is why Esperanza's father was targeted and killed.
3. Esperanza is in despair because she finds out that her father has been killed. On page 22, the text reads, "She fell to her knees and sank into a dark hole of despair and disbelief."
