My Tail is Telling!
Look and you will see.
Just because my tail is wagging doesn’t mean I’m happy.

Look at my whole body from tail to snout, this is how you figure me out.
If my face and body look tense or tight, give me some space, this is not an invite.

And if you see my tail low or tucked, I’m feeling unsure and don’t want to be touched.
But if my butt is wiggling too, that means I’m pretty excited to see you.

My whole body tells the whole story, not just my tail, So the next time you watch me, look at every detail.
