

Oil Mist Curb

An "oil mist eliminator" or "oil mist collector," is a device used in industrial settings to capture and remove oil mist and other airborne contaminants from the air within a facility. These devices are commonly used in manufacturing processes, particularly in environments where metalworking operations generate oil mist as a byproduct.

