

HARRIET TUBMAN

Harriet Tubman was born into slavery in 1820. In 1849, Harriet decided to escape by using the Underground Railroad. The Underground Railroad was neither underground nor a railroad. It was a series of safe houses that hid slaves as they traveled north to freedom. Harriet helped over 300 slaves to escape. She also nursed injured soldiers of the Civil War and served on a military rescue mission that saved over 750 slaves.
