THE BAGS

Going away for a week? Try a duffel. Meeting a friend for a match or a few rounds? Pack a gym bag. Work? Tote. Whatever the next few months have in store, a man needs a bag to carry what needs carrying, and the above six, half of them in supple, durable, luxurious leather and half in rugged, affordable cotton, are the best of the bunch.

1. Leather duffel bag ($498) by Vince Camuto.
2. Leather duffel bag ($695) by Coach.
3. Leather tote bag ($1,925) by Tod's.
4. Waxed-cotton-and-canvas weekend bag ($295) by Ernest Alexander.
5. Cotton-and-leather duffel bag ($550) by Rag & Bone.
6. Twill tote bag ($140) by Filson.

THE SPORT POLOS

FOR GOLF

Famous among denim geeks for its souped-up, cutting-edge jeans, AG Adriano Goldschmied recently introduced AG Green Label, a golf line that combines great fits and interesting colors with all the technical elements (wicking fibers, UV protection) that help us stay cool. Polo shirt ($138) by AG Green Label.

FOR TENNIS

Of all the Uniqlo shirts that Novak Djokovic is paid so handsomely to wear on the court, this is the one he likes best. Its cut and construction maximize flexibility, and it's made from Uniqlo's Dry-Ex, a woven cloth that dries quickly and keeps things comfortable. Polo shirt ($30) by Uniqlo.

The Swim SUITS

FOR THE ADVENTUROUS MAN

CHARLIE BY MATTHEW ZINK ($295)

ETRO ($292)

ORLEBAR BROWN ($345)

RETROMARINE ($145)

TOMMY BAHAMA ($68)
