

PHILIP STITES

Condition Report Available

CO403-429/31500

GERMAN NEOCLASSIC GILTWOOD CHANDELIER

the banderole carved circular ring suspending foliate spindle and strapwork frame ending in ball finial, surmounted by similar compound carved fluted and foliate vasiform finial, supporting four pair downward scrolling foliate sheathed candle arms, rising to foliate nozzles; the whole suspended from bead and reel carved chain from circular section flat canopy with foliate finial; now wired and fitted with natural beeswax candles

First quarter 19th century

Provenance: Schloss Honenaschau, Aschau im Chiemgau, Germany

Overall dimensions: 34 ½" diameter x 43" high