

PHILIP STITES

Condition Report Available

CO495-131/44000

PAIR WESTERN HAN EARTHENWARE PAINTED COURT FIGURES

each fully sculpted female form, one standing and one kneeling, with removable cocked heads on wood pegs, draped in layered flowing robes; the whole retaining traces of red and black polychrome finish and archeological patination

Han dynasty 226 B.C.E. – 220 C.E.

Overall Dimensions: Standing figure: 9" deep x 11" wide x 29 ½" high

Base only: 6" deep x 11" wide

Kneeling figure: 7 ½" deep x 10" wide x 19 ½" high

Base only: 4 ½" deep x 10" wide

A similar model is retained in the Met Collection #1997.1.1