

PHILIP STITES

Condition Report Available

CO495-237/4800

AFRICAN JACARANDA CHIEFTAIN'S CHAIR

the double headed carved shaped and molded bird back rail, joined to similar arms, raised on circular section supports and joined to rectangular paneled seat incised with concentric geometric squares, flanked by rectangular section rails; the whole raised on articulated circular section flaring legs and and fitted with tin bosses and shield

Liberia, Côte d'Ivoire

19th Century

Overall dimensions: 24 1/2" deep x 27" wide x 21 1/2" high

Seat height: 11"