

PHILIP STITES

Condition Report Available

CO495-265/8600

CHINESE BLACK LACQUER AND NACREOUS INLAID STAND

the square section top with lipped edge over high waisted openwork foliate inset panels and joined by a shaped rounded apron, resting on four tapering rectangular section cabriole legs ending in scroll feet, all on low compound moulded base with inset waist; the whole enriched with inlaid nacreous decoration depicting scholars gathering in a fenced garden pavilion, enclosed within diapered border, the base with scholar with fan sitting in similar garden landscape, the legs and apron with foliate and floral decoration with diapered corners

18th Century

Overall dimensions: 12 1/2" x 12 1/2" x 16 1/2" high

For a similar table see: Ryukuan Lacquerware from the Urasoe Art Museum Collection, p.144, no.114