

PHILIP STITES

Condition Report Available

CO495-279/23000

BYZANTINE

PORPHYRY FRAGMENT

the fully realized sculpted and molded head of a cherubic youthful male, with full billowing hair, the top flat, a small nose between deep set eyes over closed mouth; the whole deeply weathered and worn with losses

Byzantine Empire (395 - 1453 C.E.)

Overall dimensions: 7" deep x 8" wide x 8" high