

PHILIP STITES

CO495-627/8600

“SACRIFICE IN POMPEII”

ITALIAN SPECIMEN WOOD MARQUETRY, MICRO

MOSAIC AND PAINTED PANEL

of rectangular form within conforming frame, in various woods with polychromed decoration, the central inset panel depicting the fresco discovered in the triclinium of House of Vettii in Pompeii, Italy, with Diana leading a deer to a pyre, attendants and putti watching; the whole within various foliate and floral borders, alternating with facing griffins, swans and atheniennes, the lower corners with blocks depicting dolphins

19th Century - Pencil engraving on reverse “Sacrifice in Pompeii” Overall dimensions: 8 1/2” high x 21” wide