

PHILIP STITES

Condition Report Available

CO495-250-255/980ea

HONGSHAN NEOLITHIC STYLE JADEITE RITUAL CARVINGS

of fully realized sculpted and molded pierced forms, depicted standing, crouching or sitting in various combinations of interlocking mythical figures and animals

After the Neolithic models (4700 - 2900 BCE) - Lio river basin - Northern China

Of various dimensions.

Deepest: 5 1/2"

Widest: 5 1/2"

Highest: 13"