Dee Cee Style is one of the premier men's fashion stores in Europe, the world even. Patron Markus Cadruvi tells us he has followed this publication since its inception and we have followed him and his vision of rugged wear since the opening of the Zurich emporium. In these pictures from issue 13 we feature Matt Hind's elegant portraits of the stylist (because he is a true style-maker) at home with his motorcycles in the tranquil Swiss countryside.

Products

Anderson & Anderson (Denmark)

A real fashion knitwear company but with classic style. This summer look out for their exceptional marine based collection in fine textiles. This stuff is good.

andersen-andersen.com

Dale (Norway)

An old ski-sweater maker from Norway, Dale are now doing a series of reissued models from the mid-century Norwegian ski scene. Very high quality in make and design. If you like Norway knits, this is the best.

Old Passion

Made exclusively by the inmates of Swiss prisons, this brand screams quality and care in its manufacture. If you need a heavy-duty wallet you go here first.

DeeCee Style: 10 Year of Men's File Jacket!

We start our review of new products out there in the market place with an exclusive release from DeeCee Style in Zurich. Developed during the lead-up to our 10 year anniversary, this Italian made, rough out lambskin A1 Jacket really is exceptional and we predict will wear-in to optimum patina quickly. Following this unique piece is a German made shoe-cleaning travel kit that comes in an aluminium box with an illustration by Josh of the now legendary Josh's Flight Jackets (remember, you saw him first in Men's File in issue 11). www.deecestyle.ch

Sebago (USA)

Founded in New England, the company first released a loafer of this style in 1946. Techniques have changed little as has the experience of wearing such a comfortable and stylish item of footwear. Their site is packed with classics! www.sebago.co.uk

Fat Boy Clothing (France)

This Gallic brand do the best of vintage American. Here we concentrate on a small part of their new accessories range. Exceptional. Check out their site please www.fatboy-clothing.com
