

THE 50 BEST FURNITURE SHOPS

16 Robert Young

'This shop never fails to amuse with its eclectic mix of furniture and funny, quirky objects, which always delight,' says Elaine. 'I love the way he displays his stock to maximum advantage in this tiny shop'. Trained at Sotheby's, Robert set up his shop in 1977 and stocks a mix of English and European antiques. As Elaine says there is plenty of furniture - tables, chairs, etc, but also the unusual decorative items, such as a wooden potter's wheel and a marriage cupboard
