

Do you have someone to thank this year?

We can help you!

This year we are offering corporate Christmas Boxes.

2023 is going to be a very special Christmas, and all of The McCaul Family and the whole team at Alexandrina Cheese are hoping and wishing for a little more sparkle, a little less stress, of course this Christmas we wish you the very BEST.

As such, the countdown is well and truly on to Christmas, and Alexandrina Cheese have launched our new seasonal bundles, and they are available on our new online shop. We've also created a new Cheese Guide to comprehensively describe our range of semi-hard and hard cheeses.

We've had a wonderfully productive year, almost 40 tonne of cheese have been made from our Jersey milk, it is ready for release, and we now are able to share our efforts with you.

We are so proud to celebrate 50 years of dairy farming this year, and it is our 22nd year of cheesemaking. We are thrilled to offer our handcrafted Jersey farmhouse cheese and dairy products to you, and we hope that your festive table is plentiful and abundant.

There are four bundles of Alexandrina Cheese to choose from, they are bound together with Christmas ribbons.

- All I want for Christmas is Alexandrina Cheese
- Take Five from Alexandrina Dairy
- Behold the Baby Cheeses
- Top Nine from Alexandrina Cheese

Of course, you can create your own box, check the Xmas Bundles section on our website, and place your order on our online shop (we have enclosed our Order Form as a helpful guide). This will be particularly handy if you would like us to deliver a special thank you gift to a friend, and we can also include a meaningful note. We do offer a special in store collection service, 37 Sneyd Road. Our last pick-up date is December 22nd, and will be from 11am until 1pm. Once the order is processed, we will coordinate this in store collection with you.

At the end of the year particularly, we all want to be appreciated. Whether you've asked someone in your team to step up, or if someone has worked a weekend to get a project off the ground, or if they've simply been there for you when you needed their support. We think an acknowledgement or a thank you can go a long way to making us feel good about the efforts we put in. And what better way than with locally made artisan cheese!

And you could also send yourself a box of Alexandrina Cheese. Just make sure you keep the top shelf of your refrigerator clear in December!

If you are looking for a foodie inspired Christmas idea, then have a look through last years' collection of Alexandrina Christmas Recipes in our little cookbook. In this edition of our Cookbook we have prepared six Christmas Recipes - you can spend time creating each one, each one looks amazing on a table, and the best part is that you can share them with your friends and family.

May your Christmas sparkle with moments of love, laughter, and goodwill, and there be enough left for New Year's entertaining, to fill all your platters up with Alexandrina Cheese!
