

COMMISSIONED ART SIZE AND PRICE GUIDE

All sizes and prices below are based on pre-made canvases purchased directly from the canvas supplier. These prices are to be used as a guide only. Prices may vary depending on the style of art and supplies required for canvas coverage and time taken to complete individual works.

Canvases can be custom stretched to suit specific requirements/measurements. These requests will be quoted individually and have an approximate two-week manufacturing period from time of deposit.

Framing can be arranged for an additional cost of $50.00 per meter in raw oak.

Terms and Conditions:

All commissions are created as an interpretation of the client brief. Colours and details will vary as each piece is an original one-of-a-kind work of art.

The artist holds the right to replicate sections of the original art for reproduction prints and product graphics.

Artwork will not be subject to change once deemed complete by the artist.

A non-refundable deposit for commissioned artwork confirms the order and ensures the next available position on the current job list.

The balance owing is due upon completion and collection of the artwork.

The artwork remains the property of Deb McNoughton until payment is made in full.

Deb McNoughton will not be held responsible for items damaged or lost during transit.

A private art courier quote can be arranged upon request but is not always viable depending on client location.
