

The Right Stuff: How to choose materials for homeschooling—especially at the elementary level

Table of Contents

1. Overview: how to think about your teaching task.....	Page 1
2. Three paths for choosing your educational materials....	Page 2
3. The basic areas of home education.....	Page 5
a. Reading / phonics.....	Page 5
b. The love of writing.....	Page 7
i. Words.....	Page 9
ii. Sentences.....	Page 9
iii. Penmanship and touch-typing.....	Page 11
iv. Paragraphs.....	Page 11
v. Essays and research papers.....	Page 12
c. Math.....	Page 13
d. Bible.....	Page 13
e. Art.....	Page 13
f. History.....	Page 14
g. Geography.....	Page 15
h. Science.....	Page 16
i. Smart thinking.....	Page 17
j. Foreign languages.....	Page 17
k. Musical instruments.....	Page 18
l. Physical skills.....	Page 19
m. Financial training.....	Page 20
4. A typical day.....	Page 21
5. Appendices.....	Page 22
a. Academic checklist.....	Page 23
b. Printing chart.....	Page 24
c. Two fists to clear up the b and d confusion.....	Page 25
d. Sure-fire penmanship (cursive).....	Page 26
e. “Spelling for Success,” by Susan C. Anthony.....	Page 29
f. “Ship Me to Boulder,” by Melanie Ellison.....	Page 33

This is a production of Homeschool How-Tos
Website: www.homeschoolhowtos.com
Email: info@homeschoolhowtos.com

