

BEYOND DISCIPLINE
TRAIN YOUR CHILD'S CHARACTER.
(WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU AREN'T LOOKING?)

RENEE ELLISON

BEYOND DISCIPLINE

Train Your Child's *Character

RENÉE ELLISON

Table of Contents

$5

Part I:	Discipline in the home	1
	Submission of the flesh	2
	Begin with the end in view	4
	3 images for how to view discipline	7
	Nurturing moments	9
	Raise up a shield of expertise in your child	11
	Can you love your child too much?	12
	Absolute surrender and lavish love	14
	Training, not tyranny	14
	Training tools:	16
	#1: Busy children are happy children	17
	#2: Spanking	19
	#3: Diverting attention	21
	#4: Make it counter-productive to them	21
	#5: Consistency	22
	#6: Re-runs	23
	#7: Shape the attitude	23
	Semantic atmosphere	24
	Why say "Thank-You"?	27
	The authority of your word	27
	Respect, and appeals to authority	29
	Accidents	29

	Sickness—and sibling rivalry	30
	Stick figure eye-openers	32
	The quality of your discipline	33
	Inconvenient vigilance	34
	Help from the Holy Spirit	35
	Work ethic—and results	37
	Index to Part 1	39
Part 2:	Q&amp;A re: particular aspects	40
	When to say yes and when, no	40
	Distinguishing child discipline and training	40
	The socialization question	42
	How to raise a holy child	44
	Academic dawdling by a young child	45
	What to do when a child is going astray	46
Part 3:	Strategies for managing groups	48
	44 group discipline strategies	48
	Positive phrases to use with children	59
	Many ways to say "very good"	60
	Group discipline techniques in a nutshell	61

