Mostly SB. You are StinkBug:
Factual is your middle name. You see things just as they appear, no nuance about it. You have a famously dry wit and rarely have so much as an emotion, let alone a reaction. Some would call you hyper-literal, but you see no problem with that description: it just means you value correctness. Serious, intellectual, and steadfastly observant, your scientifically inventive mind and creative thinking can figure out how to escape from any sticky situation.

Mostly SH. You are SmartHawk:
Behind every great leader, there’s someone like you responsible. If you were an actor, you’d hold the record for most nominations without ever winning gold. Okay, if you could be accused of anything, it’d be an obsession with planning, but who cares? If others planned better, they’d have their to-do lists checked off and their inboxes reduced too. Pragmatic, wise, and deft in social situations, you always save the day without anyone knowing it was your idea.

Mostly LS. You are LaserShark:
You are everyone’s favorite friend! You place a high value on having fun and doing good for others. Funny, high-energy, and infinitely loving, you are always up for anything—even something embarrassing! You love to travel, and you collect friends like postage stamps—no matter where you go, you know someone there who’s happy to see you. You’ll do anything for friends or family, and are always the person called on when anyone needs a hand, a hug, or a homemade cookie.

Mostly AW. You are AstroWolf:
Earth is hardly big enough for you! You have a strong sense of self-confidence and take the lead in every situation, no matter what. You take pride in being called bossy: after all, without a boss, how would anything get done? Assertive and opinionated, you’re often the loudest one in your group, and while you may have a tendency to bail on plans even after you’ve made them, if you do turn up, your friends know the night will be unforgettable, in one way or another.
