CERAMICS MADE IN PORTUGAL

HAND-PAINTED

*Designed in Denmark
– and painted by hand in Portugal.*

A group of very talented women in Portugal have translated our dream and brought our new ceramics collection to life. The charm of hand-painted pieces means that each piece carries its own distinctive touch, depending on the hand that painted it. So small differences from piece to piece are part of the charm. We hope you will mix and match your preferred items to assemble your personal collection - but also to perfectly blend in with the treasures you already have at your table.
