By Pearl Fontaine

Winter is coming to an end, and with the season change, many different designers, artists, and brands are shedding their coats to prepare for the warmer upcoming season. Below, we've put together a Brand New roundup of some of our favorite new collections, items, and collaborations to help you get ready for spring.

OC Jewelry is much more than just a brand of classic accessories. Founder and philanthropist Oriane Collins, alongside husband Phil Collins, also started the charity Little Dreams Foundation (LDF). Not only is the jewelry unique (as its inspiration comes from Oriane's heritage, life, and travels), but a percentage of all of OC Jewelry's sales is donated back into LDF to help underprivileged children achieve their dreams in sports, arts, and music.
