

AVENTURA™

Everybody Knows
THE FABULOUS
Penelope Cruz

Dine Around the World
(AT MIAMI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT)

Miami
Fashion Week's GLOBAL STYLE

THE International ISSUE

Amazing people, places & things right here in Miami

Exploring Cusco, Peru • Insta Shopping • and more

social studies

MIAMI Italian footwear brand Giuseppe Zanotti along with jewelry designer and philanthropist Orienne Collins hosted a charitable evening of shopping at Zanotti's Bal Harbour Shops Boutique. Proceeds from the intimate event benefitted Little Dreams Foundation, the organization founded by Orienne and Phil Collins that is dedicated to advancing children in the arts, sports and music who don't have the financial means to do so independently. Invited guests nibbled on bites from Scium Cafe and enjoyed a musical performance by the foundation's Little Dreamers.

A. Camila Picovi and Tyler Watts. B. Annie Valdivia and Renata Munoz. C. Adriana de Moura and Orienne Collins. D. Jeremy Goureau and Daniela Gutierrez. E. Nick D'Annunzio and Jocslyn Medland. F. Scenes from the party. G. Antony, Philippe and Jeremy Goureau.

MIAMI Little Dreams Foundation celebrated the Second Annual Little Dreams Foundation Benefit Gala: Dreaming on the Beach at the Fillmore Miami Beach Theatre. The glamorous celebration featured special performances by music legend Phil Collins, original Foreigner frontman Lou Gramm, DJ Irie, singer Diego Torres and Alvaro Soler. More than 2,000 guests raised funds to fulfill the dreams of young aspiring talents who don't have the means to achieve their goals.

A. Musicians Alvaro Soler and Diego Torres. B. Phil Collins onstage with the Foundation's Little Dreamers. C. Renata Muñoz, Manola Quintana and Andrea Gomez. D. Justin and Taima Jones and Lou Gramm. E. DJ Irie, Tara Solomon and Romero Britto. F. Diego Torres and Orienne Collins. G. Kathryn Oroz and ACT Productions CEO Bruce Oroz.

